DESCRIPTION

Station Villa is a character Victorian cottage, which has benefited from a sympathetic, two storey extension. This fine four-bedroom family home presents brick elevations, set with a mixture of multi paned single glazed casement and UPVC double glazed windows, beneath a pitched and hipped tiled roof with flat roof to the extension.

The period accommodation is arranged over three floors with features including the sitting room with open fireplace, exposed wooden floors, aspect to front extending out across the road to fields. A particular feature is the kitchen/dining room with island and breakfast bar, space and housing for range style cooker and American style fridge/freezer, twin bowl ceramic sink with mixer tap over, quartz work surfaces, engineered wooden parquet flooring, a triple aspect incorporating double doors opening out to the garden. Open plan snug with fireplace (currently sealed) with useful storage cupboards. Leading on to a rear boot/dog room and utility room with space and plumbing for washing machine, tiled floor and door to outside. A useful cloakroom is fitted with traditional high-level WC and twin bowl ceramic wash hand basin.

Arranged over the first and second floors are four bedrooms including a triple aspect main bedroom enjoying distant views out across to fields and with an en-suite shower room with walk-in shower, close coupled wc and wash hand basin. The family bathroom is fitted with a traditional suite including separate electric shower, freestanding rolltop bath with mixer tap and shower attachment, vanity unit with marble top, mixer tap and inset wash hand basin. Bedrooms two and three have feature cast iron fireplaces.

Bedroom four on the second floor has exposed floorboards, enjoys a double aspect including Velux roof line windows with fine views out across rooftops and fields beyond.
